The Senior Class of 1975 would like to *dedicate the 1975 Bulldog to

MRS. JANICE PAUL for her devotion to her classes, concern for the student body and her love for Fairdale High School.*

You sheltered me from harm
Kept me warm — kept me warm
You gave your life to me
Set me free — set me free

The finest years I ever knew
Were all the years I spent with you.

— David Gates

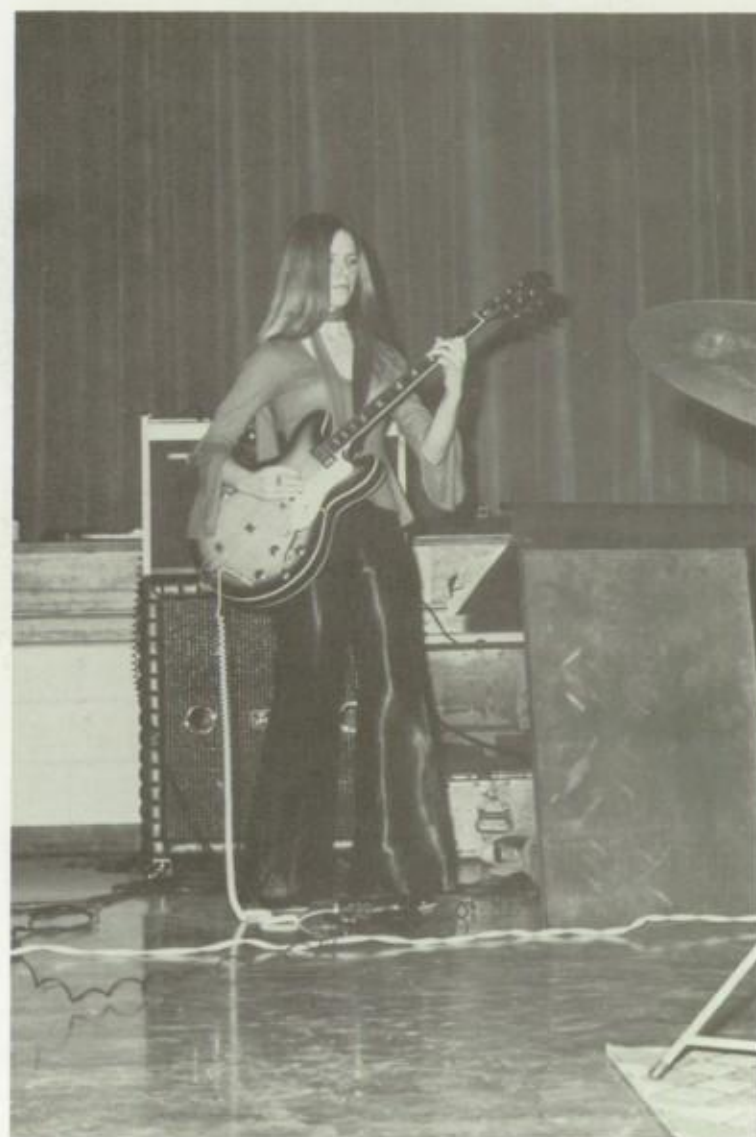

Hey tomorrow, where are you goin'
Do you have some room for me?
'Cause night is fallin' and the
dawn is callin'
I'll have a new day if she'll have me.

Hey tomorrow, you've gotta believe that
I'm through wastin' what's left of me
'Cause night is fallin' and the
dawn is callin'
I'll have a new day if she'll have me.

— Jim Croce

Like Columbus in the olden days
 We must gather all our courage
 Sail our ships out on the open sea
 Cast away our fears and all the years will come and go
 And take us up — always up

We may never pass this way again.

— James Seals

Have you ever been up?
 Have you ever been down?
 Have you ever been lost?
 Have you ever been found?
 Have you ever been right?
 Have you ever been wrong?
 Have you come up short?
 Can you come along?
 Have you left a mark?
 Have you left alone?
 Have you seen the way?
 Can you come back home?
 Short stories — that's what we live
 Short stories — just take what they will give
 Short stories — that's all it's ever been
 Don't worry about the ending —
 Before (you) begin.

— Harry Chapin

What a piece of work is man.
 How noble in reason, how
 infinite in faculties,
 In form and moving, how express
 and admirable,
 In action how like an angel.
 In apprehension how like a god.

— William Shakespeare

You got to make it by yourself.
 You know you got to make it by yourself.
 I'll be your friend and I'll lend
 a helping hand,
 But you got to try and help yourself
 before I can.

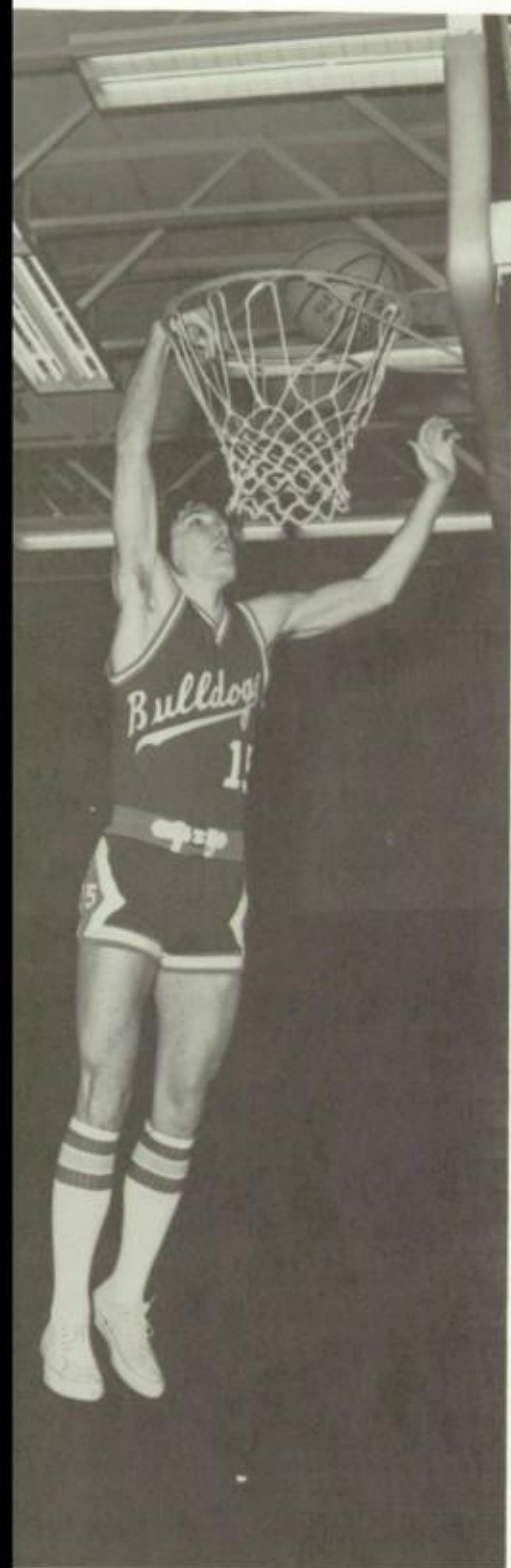

— James Griffin and
 David Gates

Rivers belong where they can ramble.
 Eagles belong where they can fly.
 I've got to be where my spirit
 can run free.
 Got to find my corner of the sky.

Everyman has his daydreams,
 Everyman has his goal,
 People like the way dreams have
 of sticking to the soul.

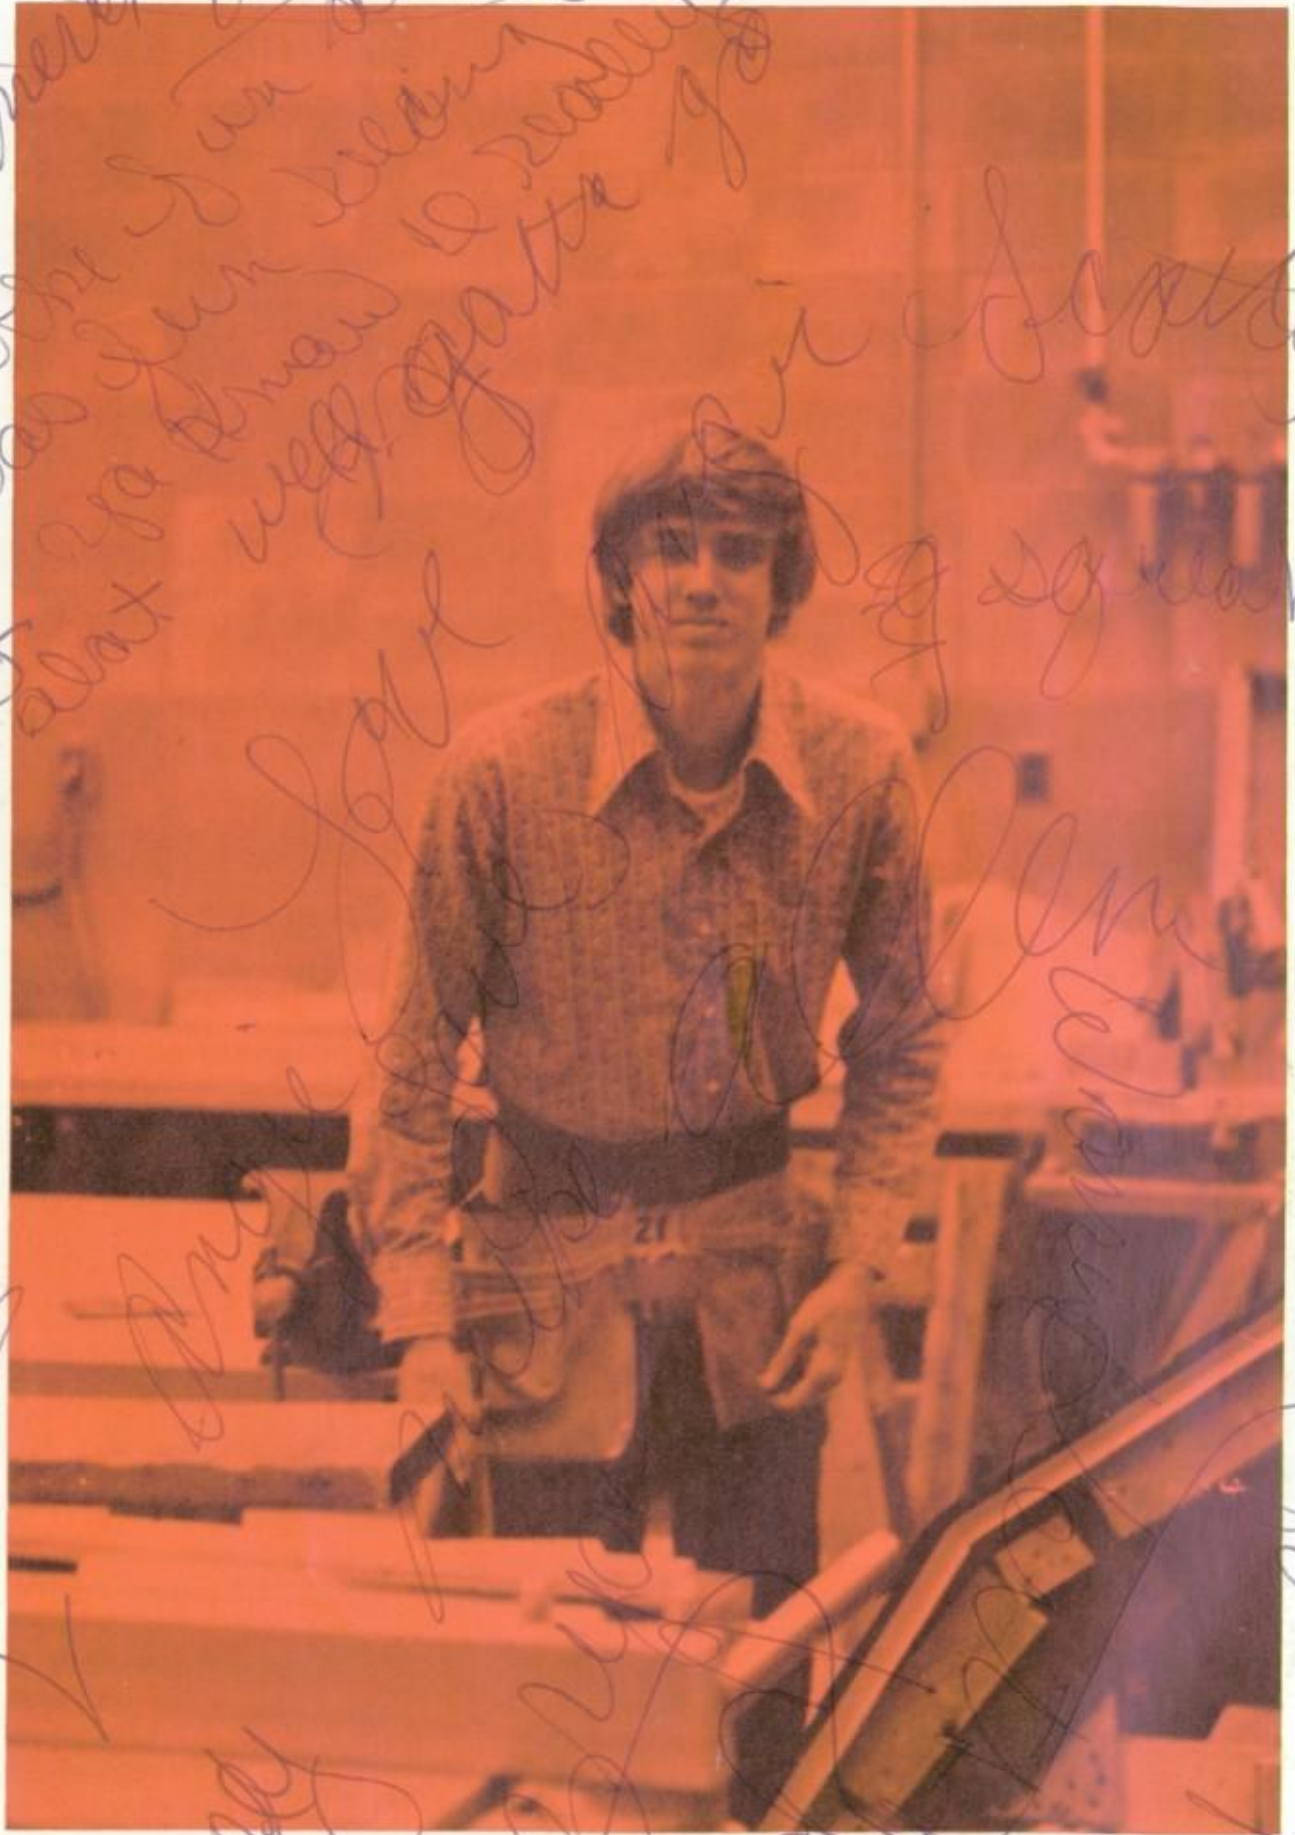

Thunderclouds have their lightning,
Nightingales have their song,
And don't you see I want my life
To be something more than long?

— Stephen Schwartz

ADMINISTRATION/ FACULTY

Often have I seen a glorious morning light up the hills,
Bathe the green meadows in golden sunshine, changing the colour of the streams;
And then lowering clouds drive across the sun's face, hiding it from the world,
Overcast while the sun steals on to the west unseen.
Even so my sun one morning shone with splendor on me;
But then, alas, this was but for an hour: a cloud masks him from me now.
Yet love thinks no less of him for this;
When the sun in heaven may be overcast, so may the suns in the world beneath.

From left to right — Orville R. Miller, Jr.; Don M. Randolph; Fred Pfannenschmidt, Jr.; Roberta B. Tully, Chairman; Earl J. Hartlage.

To the Senior Class of 1975:

Your senior year has been one of varied events. You are the first class to graduate on the school campus; the first class to have two formal graduation exercises.

Your class has led the school in attempting to revive school spirit. On behalf of the school staff, I commend you for your leadership.

Good luck and best wishes for your future years.

Fall Play

The Matchmaker

presented by Thespian Troupe 2066
and the
Fairdale Drama Club

Written by Thornton Wilder
Directed by Peggy Sanders

Synopsis of the Play

Horace Vandergelder, a merchant in the city of Yonkers, New York, in the late 1800's, has decided to remarry. Dolly Levi, an old friend of his late wife, is "hired" to arrange for him a bride. Now Vandergelder's idea of a wife is merely that of a housekeeper, and he decides to ask Irene Molloy, a millineress in New York City, to become his second wife. Meanwhile Dolly has different ideas. Her "matchmaking" brings interesting results for the various characters, including Vandergelder's store clerks, Cornelius Hackl and Barnaby Tucker, as they round off their adventures in a madcap encounter with Mr. Vandergelder at the Harmonia Gardens Restaurant in New York City. In the end, however, several of the couples decide to marry, and in spite of all their "adventures and misadventures," things work out fine for everyone.
